

Stratevo Consulting Inc., founded in 2009, specializes in consulting services in management and technology. Our approach allows organizations to reach their goals by providing assistance in the definition of their business and IT strategies and seeing to their implementation.

Approach

Our Services

Stratevo “Strategy Evolution”

The primary objective of Stratevo Consulting is to become a business partner and assist its clients in their business transformation projects. Today's businesses need to react quickly in order to adapt to changing economic situations. They must work together with partners who have the ability to integrate different functional areas by using their multidisciplinary expertise.

Stratevo Consulting offers you a realistic, step-by-step strategic plan and sees to the realization of your proposed strategies, all of while ensuring consistency between your actual and future needs as well as making sure your organization has the coping skills to accept these changes.

If required, we may provide the governance for your initiatives while ensuring that the best resources are available for the realization of your projects.

Do you have the time and the internal expertise necessary to for the implementation of your initiatives?

Let us join your team so we can help you carry out your projects and meet your strategic objectives.